

“Whom the Son sets free is free indeed”

SCHOOL IS OPENING: Let the learning begin . . .

Dear Good Friends,

We have come to our 2011-2012 school year with great expectation, but with a clear sense of the fragility of life. Most of you are aware that Megan Djerf, our stellar 1st – 2nd grade teacher, was in a moped accident which has left her injured and weakened. We expect a full recovery, but the process is slow, especially for Megan, who would rather be “tearing out of the chute.” We are thrilled that Nicole Hale will be taking the class and we will also add Lora Korynta, who will teach middle school Science and Elementary Phy-Ed. Mrs. Dvorak’s room has been changed to the former cafeteria, Mrs. Gina Trevino, will teach High School Spanish, and Pene Reid will teach middle-school Bible. Our staff is so equipped, versatile and soundly Christian in Word and Deed. Annie and Tim Ostendorf also celebrated the birth of baby Caleb.

Way of the Lord Church stands firmly behind Northside and I personally am thrilled that the church leadership and the Northside Ed. Team are significantly in pursuit of a Christ – honoring, disciple making school. We want to dazzle our students with the love of God, which raises Christ to the highest place, and puts every one of us in a position of humility due to our great need to have our sins forgiven. These are momentous days, not for just comfortable moralizing, but for serious consideration of the times we are in.

In practicality I want to tell you that our Fall – Fundraiser, Helping Hands Shar-A-Thon will come on us quickly. Last year’s great success will be enhanced and parents you are the critical point people to energize this effort.

So be encouraged, school has started and your children will be urged on in love and grace for substantial spiritual growth.

Yours,
Pastor David Reid
