LETTER FROM MISS DJERF

Dear Northside Family

This year has been so different from what I expected and planned. I'm missing my Northside family in a big way! Little did I know how many things would change with one moped ride in July!

I am recovering from the accident and resulting brain injury, but at a much slower pace than originally thought. Last week I saw my doctor at the traumatic brain injury clinic. She gave me the disappointing news that due to the level of symptoms I am still experiencing (headache, fatigue, and vision issues) I will not be able to return to teaching at all this school year.

I am so grateful for your prayer and encouragement over the past three months. Thank you! I'm also greatly comforted to know the class is in Ms. Hale's capable hands. I know she's doing a great job.

Trusting in Jesus,
Ms. Djerf
